A VINEYARD CALL TO WORSHIP

We come to worship God, who is the True Vine.

God, teach us how to remain connected so that we might bear good fruit!

Lord, we pray for world peace in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ. We pray for countries to find diplomatic solutions that will bring harmony between nations.

We pray for wars to end. We give thanks for your promise that one day there will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain. Until that day, we pray for your continued grace and goodness to overflow in this world so that humans can live alongside one another respectfully, allowing for mutual flourishing.

THE BENEDICTINE COMPANIONS OF THE ABBEY AT MILTON

TRINITY CHURCH, BINCOMBE

God's Creation"

Companions of the Abbey of Milton is a small group of inity to the Abbey, whose aim is to follow the Rule of e.

t days of Benedictine monasticism, people have been ne spirituality. Even though their circumstances do o join a community of monks or nuns, they have sought a closer link with monastic life through association with a particular monastery. They seek to profit spiritually and by reflecting on the Holy Rule of St Benedict, strive to pursue, in the world, a more perfect Christian life.

We are not all called to the life of a monk or nun but, through learning more about St Benedict and his Rule and through sharing in a life of prayer together; we hope to draw closer to God as we seek him.

Our church at Bincombe is not a monastery church but it has historic links with Benedictine foundations in Normandy and England. We hope to continue this association by maintaining a round of prayer while widening our understanding of St Benedict's teaching through a series of outings to Benedictine sites and lectures and discussions. We hope to grow in faith together through quiet days and regular corporate worship in Bincombe and at the Abbey Church and St Catherine's Chapel at Milton Abbey.

The Oxen by Thomas Hardy

Christmas Eve, and twelve of the clock.
"Now they are all on their knees,"
An elder said as we sat in a flock
By the embers in hearthside ease.

We pictured the meek mild creatures where
They dwelt in their strawy pen,
Nor did it occur to one of us there
To doubt they were kneeling then.

So fair a fancy few would weave
In these years! Yet, I feel,
If someone said on Christmas Eve,
"Come; see the oxen kneel,

"In the lonely barton by yonder coomb
Our childhood used to know,"
I should go with him in the gloom,
Hoping it might be so.

A silver lamp hangs in the sanctuary of Broadwey Church. Lamps such as this burn to remind us of God's continued loving presence. The lamp in Broadwey was given in memory of Tirion Allen who died in infancy.

If you would like to sponsor the sanctuary lamp for a particular intention, in thanksgiving or in memory of a loved one, please let Philip know.

In Memoriam: William Mitchell, Edward Bird, Her Late Majesty, Queen Elizabeth II

Conqueror of the dragon, Be thou at my back,
Thou ranger of the heavens. Thou warrior of the King of all,
O Michael the victorious, My pride and my guide
O Michael the victorious, The glory of mine eye.
I make my circuit In the fellowship of my saint,
On the machair, on the meadow, On the cold heathery hill;
Though I should travel oceans And the hard globe of the world
No harm can e'er befall me 'Neath the shelter of thy shield;
O michael the victorious, Jewel of my heart,
O Michael the victorious, God's shepherd thou art.
Be the sacred Three of Glory Aye at peace with me,
With my horses, with my cattle, With my woolley sheep in flocks.
With the crops growing in the field Or ripening in the sheaf,
On the machair, on the moor, In cole, in heap, in stack.
Every thing on high or low, Every furnishing and flock,
Belong to the Holy Triune of glory, And to Michael the victorious.

An ancient Celtic poem in praise of Michael the Archangel

Thou Michael the victorious, I make my circuit under thy shield,
Thou Michael of the white steed, and of the bright brilliant blades,

RIDE AND STRIDE

SATURDAY 10 SEPTEMBER

Join our Churches Events.

This year Sue Bruce-Payne will be riding again, and Anne Griffiths will be walking with others to raise funds for Dorset Historic Churches Trust. This charity has been most generous to all our churches. Anyone is welcome to participate. Simply put on your walking shoes or pick up your bicycle and enjoy a stroll or ride in our beautiful Dorset countryside visiting our wonderful historic churches on the way. Sponsorship forms are available from Philip so do let him know if you need one.

This year St Nicholas, Broadway will be hosting an afternoon Cream Tea on the day to raise funds for Dorset Historic Churches. By participating this way you don't even need to walk or ride but simply come and enjoy a cream tea at St Nicholas' Church and support Dorset Historic Churches in this way. We will need volunteers to help with the cream teas so do let Anne Griffiths know if you would like to help out with this.

The best part of all of this is that each church gets half of what they raised back from Dorset Historic Churches Trust so you are not only supporting a worthy charity but your church too. We look forward to seeing you there.

We are running a Ridgeway Team Alpha Course.

Alpha begins on WEDNESDAY 14 SEPTEMBER at 7pm

Contact James, our Team Rector on

RIDE AND STRIDE

SATURDAY 10 SEPTEMBER

Join our Churches Events.

This year Sue Bruce-Payne will be again, and Anne Griffiths will be with others to raise funds for Historic Churches Trust. This has been most generous to all our churches. Anyone is welcome to participate. Simply put on your walking shoes or pick up your bicycle and enjoy a stroll or ride in our beautiful Dorset countryside visiting our wonderful historic churches on the way. Sponsorship forms are available from Philip so do let him know if you need one.

This year St Nicholas, Broadwey will be hosting an afternoon Cream Tea on the day to raise funds for Dorset Historic Churches. By participating this way you don't even need to walk or ride but simply come and enjoy a cream tea at St Nicholas' Church and support Dorset Historic Churches in this way. We will need volunteers to help with the cream teas so do let Anne Griffiths know if you would like to help out with this.

The best part of all of this is that each church gets half of what they raised back from Dorset Historic Churches Trust so you are not only supporting a worthy charity but your church too. We look forward to seeing you there.

NEWS TO CELEBRATE

St Laurence's Church, Upwey, participated at a special Diocesan Platinum Jubilee Flower Festival at Salisbury Cathedral. Jennifer Baker represented the church with this superb floral installation representing Christ the King. A great deal of thought and care went into the creation of this piece which is rich in symbolism. This was a wonderful opportunity to share in the Jubilee celebrations more widely and I am delighted to see one of our churches could be a part of it. Our thanks to Jennifer and all who made this happen.

The Seasoning and Shanty Concert held at St Nicholas, Broadway last Saturday enabled us to donate £377 to the RNLI. The proceeds of ticket sales were halved so this event also raised £377 towards the church's Bell Tower Repair Fund. Cake sales added to this raised a total of £458 for the church's tower repair fund. Our heartfelt thanks to the Dorset Wrecks and Macsetal for their fantastic performances and to all who made this event the success it was.

17 May Mailduib & Probus,
Mailduib (Malmesbury), Hermit, c.675 & Probus (Sherborne)

Mailduib and Probus are the two earliest named Christians in the area covered by the current diocese of Salisbury. During the two centuries following the end of the Roman occupation of Britain in 410, there is much evidence of the presence of Christianity in Wiltshire and Dorset – a Church originating before the mission of St Augustine of Canterbury in 597. Mailduib was an Irish Christian who settled as a hermit at Malmesbury. He also ran a small school, and one of his pupils was the young St Aldhelm (who went on to become first Bishop of Sherborne). The group that gathered around Mailduib became the first monks of Malmesbury Abbey. Of Probus, the only record is a mention in a charted of Ianprobi – a church of Probus – in Sherborne before the time of St. Aldhelm.

FACE COVERINGS We encourage the use of a face covering in our churches.
Racial Justice Sunday is taking place 13 February, and we are all invited to take part. Justice is for everybody, and where there is injustice, it is our responsibility to fight for it – as it reflects God's heart for his people. Find out how be involved...

Racial Justice Sunday is an opportunity for churches to reflect on why racial justice is important, and make a commitment to seeing that justice is done. It is also a celebration of the vibrancy and diversity of God's people.

To facilitate Racial Justice Sunday in your church, "Racial Justice: What's it Got to Do With Me?" has been produced by Churches Together in Britain and Ireland, and is available for free. You can use the material to focus on racial justice in your services.

Additionally, The Church of England have produced liturgical resources, explaining that:

"Liturgical resources cannot resolve and eradicate the sin of racism. But liturgy has the power to form and shape our values and attitudes and how we live our faith in every moment. As Archbishop Desmond Tutu reflected, "As much as the world has an instinct for evil and is a breeding ground for genocide, holocaust, slavery, racism, war, oppression, and injustice, the world has an even greater instinct for goodness, rebirth, mercy, beauty, truth, freedom and love." As we move in our worship from lament to action, from repentance to healing, may we be agents of God's goodness, rebirth, mercy, beauty, truth, freedom and love in our broken and hurting world. "

St Stephen

Witness for Jesus, man of fruitful blood,

Your martyrdom begins and stands for all.

They saw the stones, you saw the face of God,

And sowed a seed that blossomed in St. Paul.

When Saul departed breathing threats and slaughter

He had to pass through that Damascus gate

Where he had held the coats and heard the laughter

As Christ, alive in you, forgave his hate,

And showed him the same light you saw from heaven

And taught him, through his blindness, how to see;

Christ did not ask 'Why were you stoning Stephen?'

But 'Saul, why are you persecuting me?'

Each martyr after you adds to his story,

As clouds of witness shine through clouds of glory.

THE FEAST OF ST MICHAEL AND ALL ANGELS

MICHAELMAS

The earliest references to St Nicholas' Church in Broadwey speak of a church dedicated to St Michael. It is not known when the church's dedication changed to St Nicholas but the association with St Michael was never lost with the church retaining an altar or chapel dedicated to the archangel. In recent years we have begun to keep this day at Broadwey as a special day of celebration in order that we can join the congregation at St Nicholas, Buckland Ripers for their patronal festival in December.

Join us at St Nicholas' Church, Broadwey on Sunday 26 September at 10.30am as we celebrate our co-patron. This will be a combined service so we look forward to welcoming you all then.

THE FEAST OF ST LAURENCE

Dear Friends,

We look forward to welcoming you all to St Laurence's Church in Upwey as we gather to celebrate this ancient church's patronal festival.

As we remember St Laurence presenting the poor, the outcast, the marginalised and those deemed undesirable to the Emperor Valerian's flabbergasted officials, with the words; "These are the treasures of the Church.”, let us, as the Church, allow ourselves to be challenged by these words.

Let us also give thanks for all who do so much to support those in our own communities who do so much to support those in need.

We remember our wonderful school, which shares St Laurence as a co-patron, the dedication of all the staff who give so much to support the life of the school as well as the children who attend our school and their families. We also give thanks for the food banks, soup kitchens, the Lantern Centre Trust and every single one of you who, in your own way support others in our community.

Let us rejoice in the generosity of our loving God and the courage and loving dedication of St Laurence as we seek to be bearers of God's love in our beautiful world.

ST NICHOLAS, BROADWEY BIG CLEAN

THANK YOU to all who joined our work party at St Nicholas, Broadway. The church and grounds look so much better. Your time and energy is hugely appreciated.

GARDEN MARKET AT 80 ELWELL STREET

Last year my late spring Garden Market raised over £600 for the Food Bank at Littlemoor. All the plants were donated by local gardeners; there were flowerer plants and vegetable plants, seedlings of annuals and more mature border plants all at reasonable prices adding to the generous total. The Food Bank is now running at St. Francis church and still contributing every week to the needs at Littlemoor.

Now I am preparing to repeat the event starting after the Easter Bank Holiday. I hope I can rely on your generosity once again to join me in raising money for this worthy cause.

I will be pleased to have your support once more and would be glad to know of any other gardeners you think may like to join us.

With best wishes for good growing weather from Pru Tel 812341

GARDEN MARKET AT 80 ELWELL STREET

Last year my late spring Garden Market raised over £600 for the Food Bank at Littlemoor. All the plants were donated by local gardeners; there were flowerer plants and vegetable plants, seedlings of annuals and more mature border plants all at reasonable prices adding to the generous total. The Food Bank is now running at St. Francis church and still contributing every week to the needs at Littlemoor.

Now I am preparing to repeat the event starting after the Easter Bank Holiday. I hope I can rely on your generosity once again to join me in raising money for this worthy cause.

I will be pleased to have your support once more and would be glad to know of any other gardeners you think may like to join us.

With best wishes for good growing weather from Pru Tel 812341

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Dear Friends,

This week, as a nation, we gather behind our Queen and Royal Family as we give thanks for the long life of His Royal Highness, Philip, Duke of Edinburgh.

Our prayers are with Her Majesty, Queen Elizabeth, and the Royal Family.

We would usually mark this time of mourning by laying tributes and leaving entries in books of condolence which, unfortunately, we are unable to do at this time.

National online books of condolence are being made available as a safe way for the public to leave messages of condolence. You will be able to find these on the Church of England's website: www.churchofengland.org and www.royal.uk

We will also hold a SPECIAL COMMEMORATION SERVICE OF THANKSGIVING FOR THE LIFE OF HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS, PHILIP, DUKE OF EDINBURGH at St Laurence's Church, Upwey on Friday evening at 6pm. This service will be ticketed to ensure social distancing so numbers are limited. Please contact Philip on (01305) 459 971 or at weymouth.west.ridgeway.vicar@gmail.com to reserve a space which will be allocated on a first come, first serve basis.

I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor rulers, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

(Romans 8:38 – 39)

ST NICHOLAS CHURCH, BROADWEY WORK PARTY – SATURDAY 24 APRIL

Join us at St Nicholas, Broadwey for a morning of brightening up our church and churchyard. We will be there from 10am until 12 noon.
We look forward to seeing you there.

St. Thomas the Apostle

“We do not know... how can we know the way?”
Courageous master of the awkward question,

You spoke the words the others dared not say
And cut through their evasion and abstraction.

Oh doubting Thomas, father of my faith,
You put your finger on the nub of things

We cannot love some disembodied wraith,
But flesh and blood must be our king of kings.

Your teaching is to touch, embrace, anoint,
Feel after Him and find Him in the flesh.

Because He loved your awkward counter-point
The Word has heard and granted you your wish.

Oh place my hands with yours, help me divine
The wounded God whose wounds are healing mine.

GARDEN MARKET AT 80 ELWELL STREET

Last year my late spring Garden Market raised over £600 for the Food Bank at Littlemoor. All the plants were donated by local gardeners; there were flowerer plants and vegetable plants, seedlings of annuals and more mature border plants all at reasonable prices adding to the generous total. The Food Bank is now running at St. Francis church and still contributing every week to the needs at Littlemoor.

Now I am preparing to repeat the event starting after the Easter Bank Holiday. I hope I can rely on your generosity once again to join me in raising money for this worthy cause.

I will be pleased to have your support once more and would be glad to know of any other gardeners you think may like to join us.

With best wishes for good growing weather from Pru Tel 8123421

ADVENT

The Feast of St Nicholas of Myra

Dear Friends,

We may not be able to do the things we usually enjoy doing at Christmastime this year but we will try to keep the season as best we can. Do look up the details of our events in this newsletter. Today is the Second Sunday of Advent but it is also the Feast of St Nicholas. In more typical circumstances we would assemble at Buckland Ripers to keep that church's patronal festival. As we reflect on the day; may we, by God's grace, be a prophetic voice in the world as St Nicholas was, proclaiming God's love in the world through our words and deeds.

ADVENT SUNDAY

Dear Friends,

As many will light the first candle on

Advent Wreath this week; we remember the promise of Hope which comes into the world when God enters his own creation as a tiny child in the manger. This is the Hope which comes from the simple message; Emmanuel, "God is with us". God is with us even in times of uncertainty and fear. Let us use this holy season of Advent to make our hearts ready to meet him when he comes.

“Our time has a great need for hope! The young can no longer be robbed of hope. ... The young need hope. It is necessary to offer concrete signs of hope to those who experience pain and suffering. Social organizations and associations, as well as individuals who strive towards acceptance and sharing, are generators of hope. Therefore, I exhort your Christian communities to be agents of solidarity, never to stop before those who, for mere personal interest, sow self-centeredness, violence and injustice. Oppose yourselves to the culture of death and be witnesses to the Gospel of life! May the light of God’s Word and the support of the Holy Spirit help you to look with new and willing eyes upon the new forms of poverty that drive so many young people and families to desperation.” Pope Francis

The Benefice Website

The benefice website is growing as fast as I can make it but it is and will be; a work in progress and because the benefice is also a community, you and everyone else are invited to contribute.

The Church Stories of each church are a collaborative project. I have nearly completed the Bincombe one for now but please read the note at the start of each story about this being a collection of comments and stories that are collaboratively assumed to be reasonably accurate but if you have more information then please send it in on wrc1@gmx.co.uk This is the email link at the bottom of every page.

Latest developments:

The St Laurence Gallery is increased with more internal 360 panoramas which you can navigate with mouse or finger on iPads etc. and see the church in detail.

The Church Story is growing so have a look and read so far. There is a lot of information on the history of the church and I am trying not to duplicate but more direct and offer the various accounts to allow you to make what you will. I am not making any definitive statements and if you want to say something different then write in and we will see how we can add to the story for everyone's benefit.

You will also see a list of Vicars and Rectors of the church since 1201 where you can see who was in charge during some of the significant periods of our colourful history.

Note the section about the Old Font. There are varying versions as to how the font was moved, why it was replaced and how it ended up under a column. Reading about that set me along a fascinating path about Henry V, Henry VI and Margaret of Anjou. Granted that the tie to St Laurence is a bit tenuous, one understands more about the Roses and texts on the wall and the context of the politics in the late 1400s.

Thank you for the positive and constructive feedback about the site so far; much more to come.

Words of Wisdom from St Augustine of Hippo

Do our years last? They slip away day by day. Those which were, no longer are; those to come, only pass away in their turn. Today exists only in the moment in which we speak. Its first hours have passed, the remainder do not yet exist; they will come, but only to fall into nothingness... Nothing contains constancy in itself. The body does not process being; it has no permanence. It changes with age, it changes with time and place, it changes with illness and accident. The stars have little constancy; they change in hidden ways, they go whirling through space... They are not steady; they do not possess being. Nor is the human heart more constant. How many things disturb it, how many ambitions! How many pleasures draw it this way and that, tearing it apart! The human spirit, though itself endowed with reason, changes; it does not possess being. It wills and does not will; it knows but does not know; it remembers and forgets. No one has in himself the unity of being... After so many sufferings, diseases, troubles, pains, let us return humbly to that One Being. Let us enter into that city whose inhabitants share in Being itself.

Psalm 121.6

Jesus meets His Mother

This darker path into the heart of pain
Was also hers whose love enfolded him
In flesh and wove him in her womb. Again
The sword is piercing. She, who cradled him
And gentled and protected her young son
Must stand and watch the cruelty that mars
Her maiden making. Waves of pain that stun
And sicken pass across his face and hers
As their eyes meet. Now she enfolds the world
He loves in prayer; the mothers of the disappeared
Who know her pain, all bodies bowed and curled
In desperation on this road of tears,
All the grief-stricken in their last despair,
Are folded in the mantle of her prayer

Bishop Nicholas has launched an Emergency Appeal for the Sudans. He is asking our Diocese to give generously for this desperate need and help him raise £50,000 in a month. The £50,000 will be divided equally between the Churches in Sudan and South Sudan, with whom we have had a long and close relationship for almost 50 years.

Or donate by sending a cheque made payable to Salisbury DBF (marked 'Sudans Appeal' on the back) to Church House, 99 Crane St, Salisbury SP1 2QB.

The Anointing at Bethany

Come close with Mary, Martha, Lazarus
So close the candles stir with their soft breath
And kindle heart and soul to flame within us
Lit by these mysteries of life and death.
For beauty now begins the final movement
In quietness and intimate encounter
The alabaster jar of precious ointment
Is broken open for the world's true lover,

The whole room richly fills to feast the senses
With all the yearning such a fragrance brings,
The heart is mourning but the spirit dances,
Here at the very centre of all things,
Here at the meeting place of love and loss
We all foresee, and see beyond the cross.

"They would rather die of Covid-19 than hunger" is the really distressing plea delivered by Archbishop Ezekiel Kondo in Khartoum, Sudan.

This shocking statement and appeals for help from church leaders throughout the Sudans has led Bishop Nicholas to launch an Emergency Appeal for the Sudans. He is asking our Diocese to give generously for this desperate need and help him raise £50,000 in a month. The £50,000 will be divided equally between the Churches in Sudan and South Sudan, with whom we have had a long and close relationship for almost 50 years.
